Glasgow Celebrates 80 Years with Top Steer Prices

National steer prices were higher Thursday compared with last Thursday in three of the six weight groups. 500–599 lb steers gained $11.74 to $433.71, while 600–699 lb steers posted the largest increase, climbing $38.39 to $377.59. The 700–799 lb group gained $9.28 to $357.45. Heavier steers were lower, with 800–899 lbs down $1.88 to $337.91, 900–999 lbs down $6.46 to $320.27, and 1,000–1,099 lbs down $28.24 to $296.35.

Nine-weight steers were featured again Thursday, accounting for 24% of steer receipts and averaging $320.27, compared with $326.73 last Thursday. Glasgow Stockyards in Glasgow, Montana, posted the top 9-weight steer sale in the country, with 151 head averaging 909 lbs at $349.75.

Glasgow also posted the top two 8-weight steer sales, led by 67 head at 810 lbs bringing $370.00, followed by 19 head at 805 lbs at $365.00, along with the top 700–799 lb steer sale in the country. The sales came during Glasgow Stockyards' Big Yearling Special as the market celebrates 80 years in business.
